The image displays twelve musical staves, each representing a major scale for flute. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The scales are arranged in descending order of their starting notes: Bb, F, C, G, D, A, E, B, Gb, Db, Ab, and Eb. Each scale is written as a single melodic line, starting with a quarter note on the tonic and followed by eighth and sixteenth notes for the ascending and descending passages. The scales end with a whole note on the tonic. The key signatures are indicated by flats or sharps at the beginning of each staff.
